Christmas Music CD

Many of you will remember last year's Oldford Christmas CD project, involving Oldford Infants School, Jack & Dulcie Peatroy and their Shrewsbury Singers, together with members of the Oldford Community. The CD was a great success and proceeds from the sale purchased an item of resuscitation equipment known as a Neonatal Puff, which was presented to the Royal Shrewsbury Hospital Special Care Baby Unit, in July of this year.

Pictured handing over the equipment to Staff Nurse Francis Davies, is Hazel Hicks, local resident, Yvonne Jones, Head Teacher, Oldford Infants School and Brendan McWhinnie, Clwyd Alyn Housing Association.

Also pictured with Francis is Tony Skeggs, of Arts Connection, who were responsible for facilitating and producing the CD.

This year's CD is currently being produced and will be on sale at the beginning of December. All proceeds from the sale of the CD will once again be donated to the Royal Shrewsbury Hospital Special Care Baby Unit. A very big thank you goes to everyone who purchased last year's CD and the production team hope that this year's CD will be just as successful. Copies of the CD will be available from the Clwyd Alyn office, Oldford Infants School and members of the community.

Colouring Competition

Are you aged between 0 and 16 and do you enjoy colouring? There's a Christmas colouring competition inside this issue of Oldford Voice, so why not have a go and see if you can win a prize? The closing date for entries is Wednesday 20th December. Please hand your entries in at the Communities First Office or the Clywd Alyn Office and remember to add your details so that we can let you know if you win!
