Saturday 26th September
Maesydre School Grounds
10.30am ~ 4.30pm

Do you remember the very first Welshpool Funday? It was such a success that there will be a Welshpool Funday 2009! Oldford Communities First and the 999 Emergency services have joined together to host this fun event.

We are very excited to give you a sneak preview of what will be happening and who will be there. There will be lots of free fun activities for all ages!

We want you all to get involved and you can have your chance by taking part in the many workshops throughout the day or entering your four legged friend in the Fun Dog Show! There will be exciting demonstrations by the 999 services and Mid Wales Falconry! Why not indulge your inner child on the Extreme Trampoline and Inflatables!

999 services Arts Project

Children from six local schools will be creating a story and a decorated screen on the 999 emergency services theme which will help them learn about how to stay safe!

The participating schools are: Oldford Infants, Gungrog, Ardwyn, Maesydre, Guilsfield and Leighton.

Come and see the children's art work at Welshpool Funday 2009

999 Emergency Services

Our emergency services work tirelessly to serve and protect us when we are in need. Now you have the chance to see them all in action!

999 Demonstration

1.00pm in the 999 area

The Police, Fire and Ambulance services will demonstrate an emergency situation as they attend a recreated roadside traffic accident.

Members of each emergency service will then be on hand to answer questions and offer advice on how to keep you and your family safe.

Here is what to look out for:

- Wales Ambulance Service
- Police Road Safety Unit
- Neighbourhood Policing Team
- Young Fire Fighters
- Air Ambulance
- Police Dog Unit
- Mid and West Wales Fire and Rescue

A BIG thank you to our sponsors and anyone who has supported this event!
